ADMINISTRATION

OFFICE

Superintendent of Schools
Robert W. Duncan

R. W. Duncan has served as superintendent of Greenville Schools for the past six years, and his duties encompass many responsibilities, some of which are school organization, finance, adult and student personnel problems, curriculum development, lunch room management, pupil transportation, school construction, public relations and instruction.

Mr. Duncan graduated from Ohio State University with Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees.

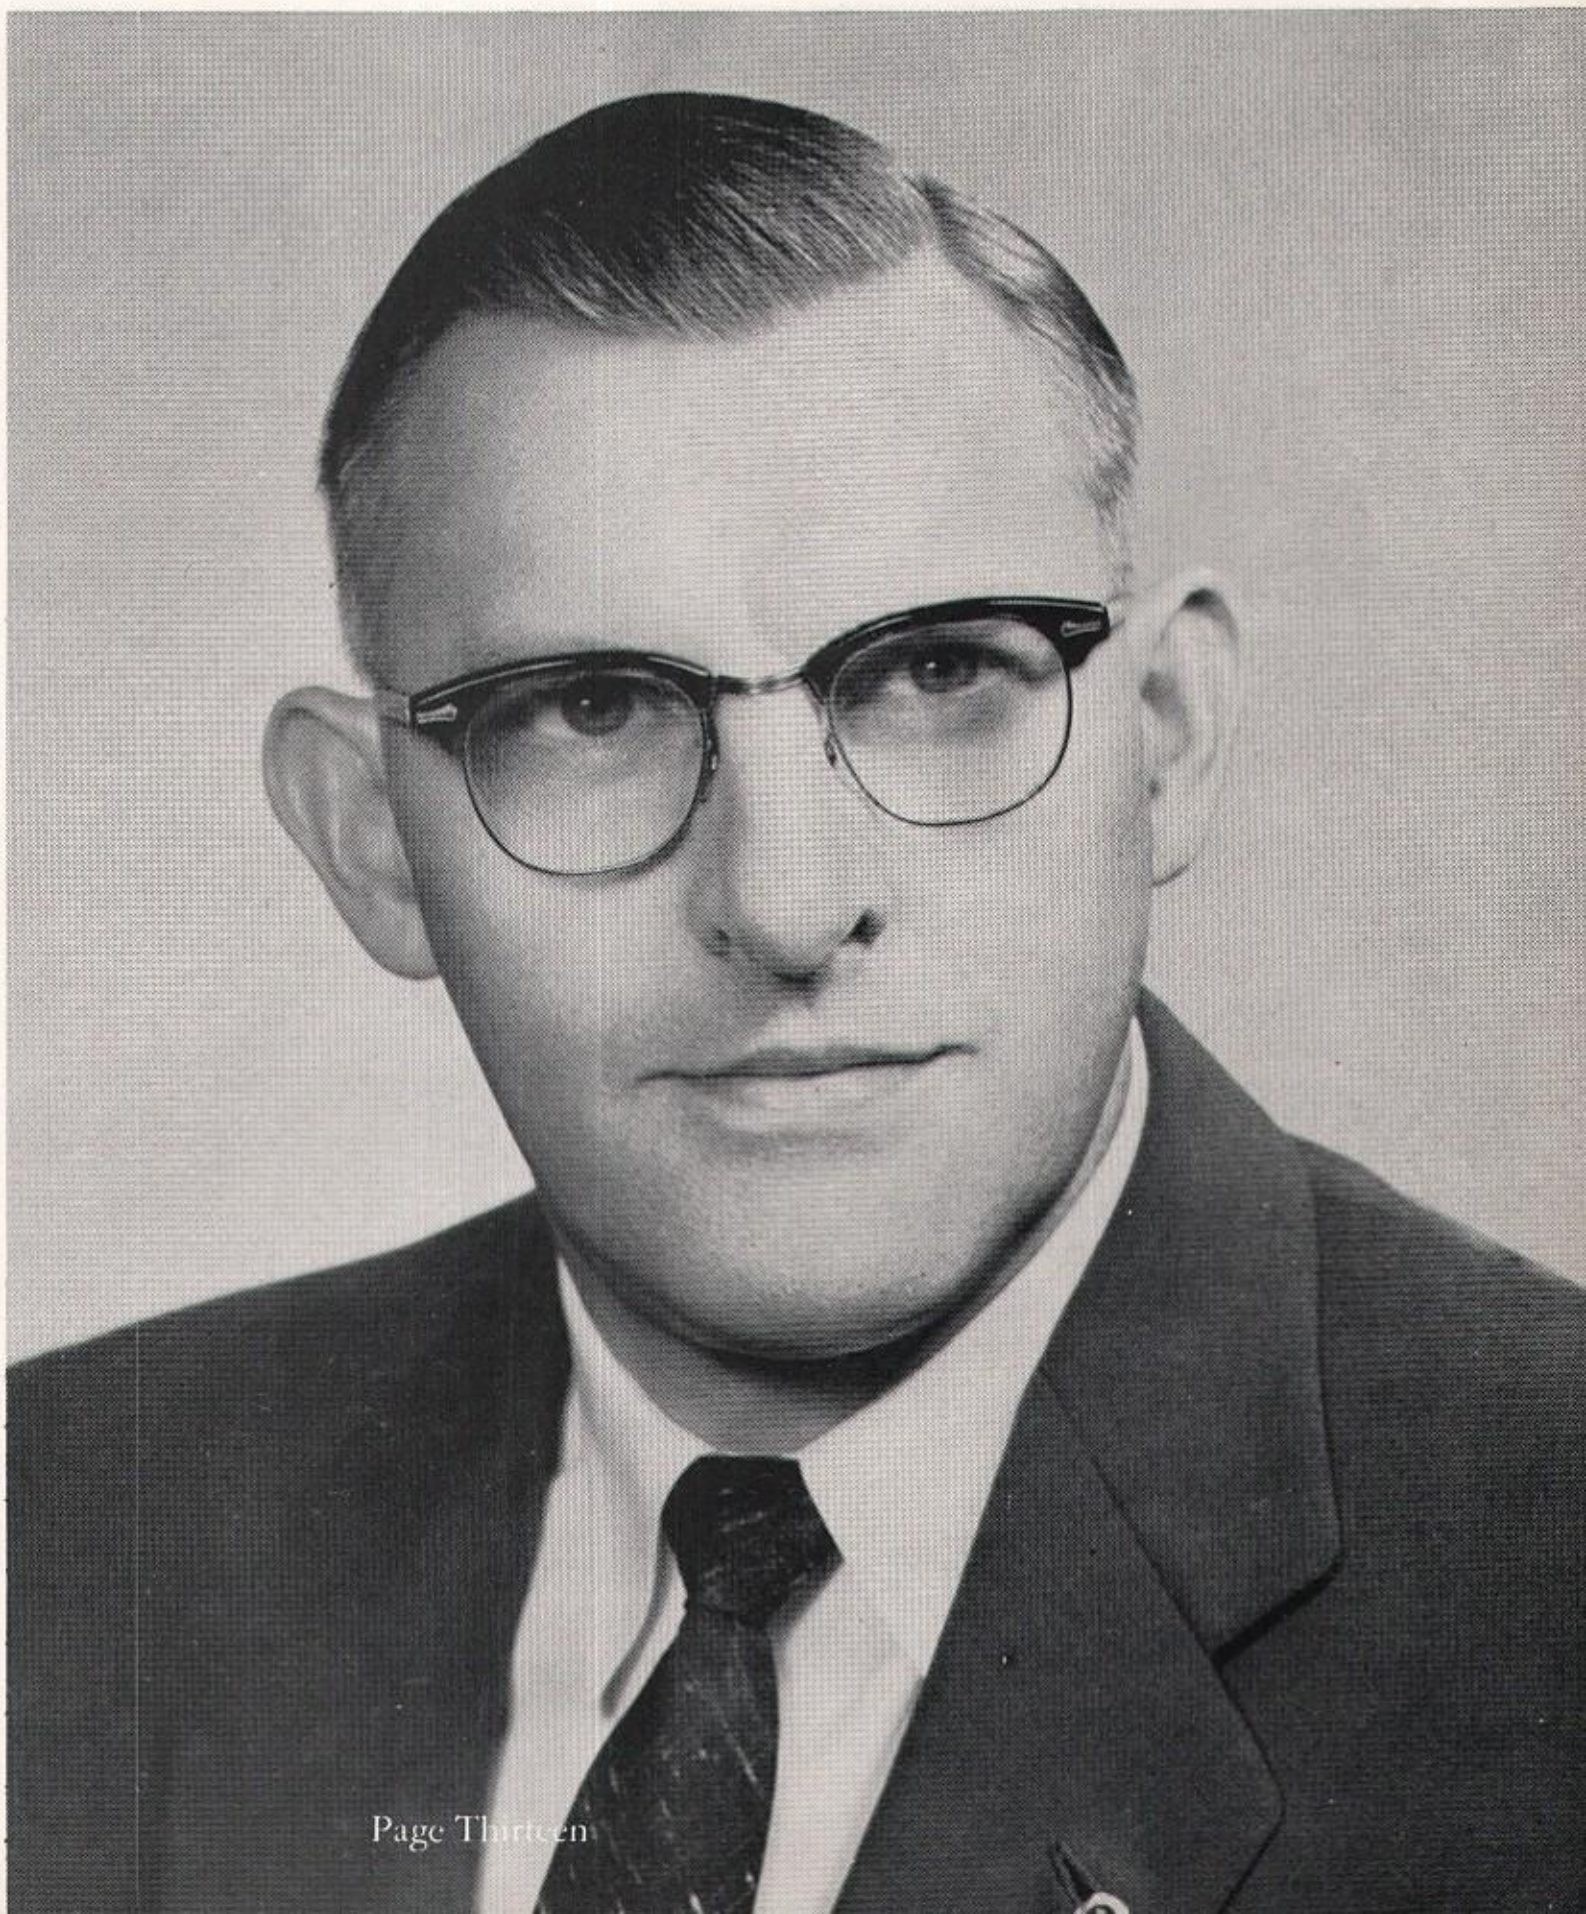
Before coming to Greenville Mr. Duncan was elementary school principal, high school teacher, high school principal, and superintendent of schools at West Milton, Ohio. Altogether Mr. Duncan has been engaged in the teaching profession for twenty-three years.

High School Principal
Garland W. Kemper

Garland W. Kemper, principal of Greenville High School, has served in this capacity for three years. Prior to his coming to Greenville, Mr. Kemper acted as principal at Ludlow, Kentucky, and Cynthiana, Kentucky.

Mr. Kemper was graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Western State College, Bowling Green, Kentucky, and obtained his Master of Arts degree in Education at the University of Kentucky. Also at the University of Kentucky, Mr. Kemper completed two additional years of graduate work.

Mr. Kemper's duties as principal include administrative and supervisory functions of all students, teachers, and non-teaching personnel.



Board of Education

Left to right: Mr. Richard Hole, Dr. F. H. Cox, Dr. R. O. Wilson, Mrs. Hugh Tearney, and Mr. Robert Taylor.

The Greenville Board of Education is made up of five members whose duties include supervising the care of the city's public school buildings and grounds, setting up the schools' curricula, choosing well qualified teachers, and selecting textbooks.

Clerk
Robert Kolp

Robert Kolp is Clerk of the Greenville City Board of Education. He keeps minutes of Board meetings and handles all communications of the Board. The clerk keeps accounts of all district school funds, signs checks, and handles pay vouchers. He gives monthly statements to the Board concerning receipts and expenditures. Acting as secretary-treasurer of the Board, Mr. Kolp sends all required reports to the State Department of Education.

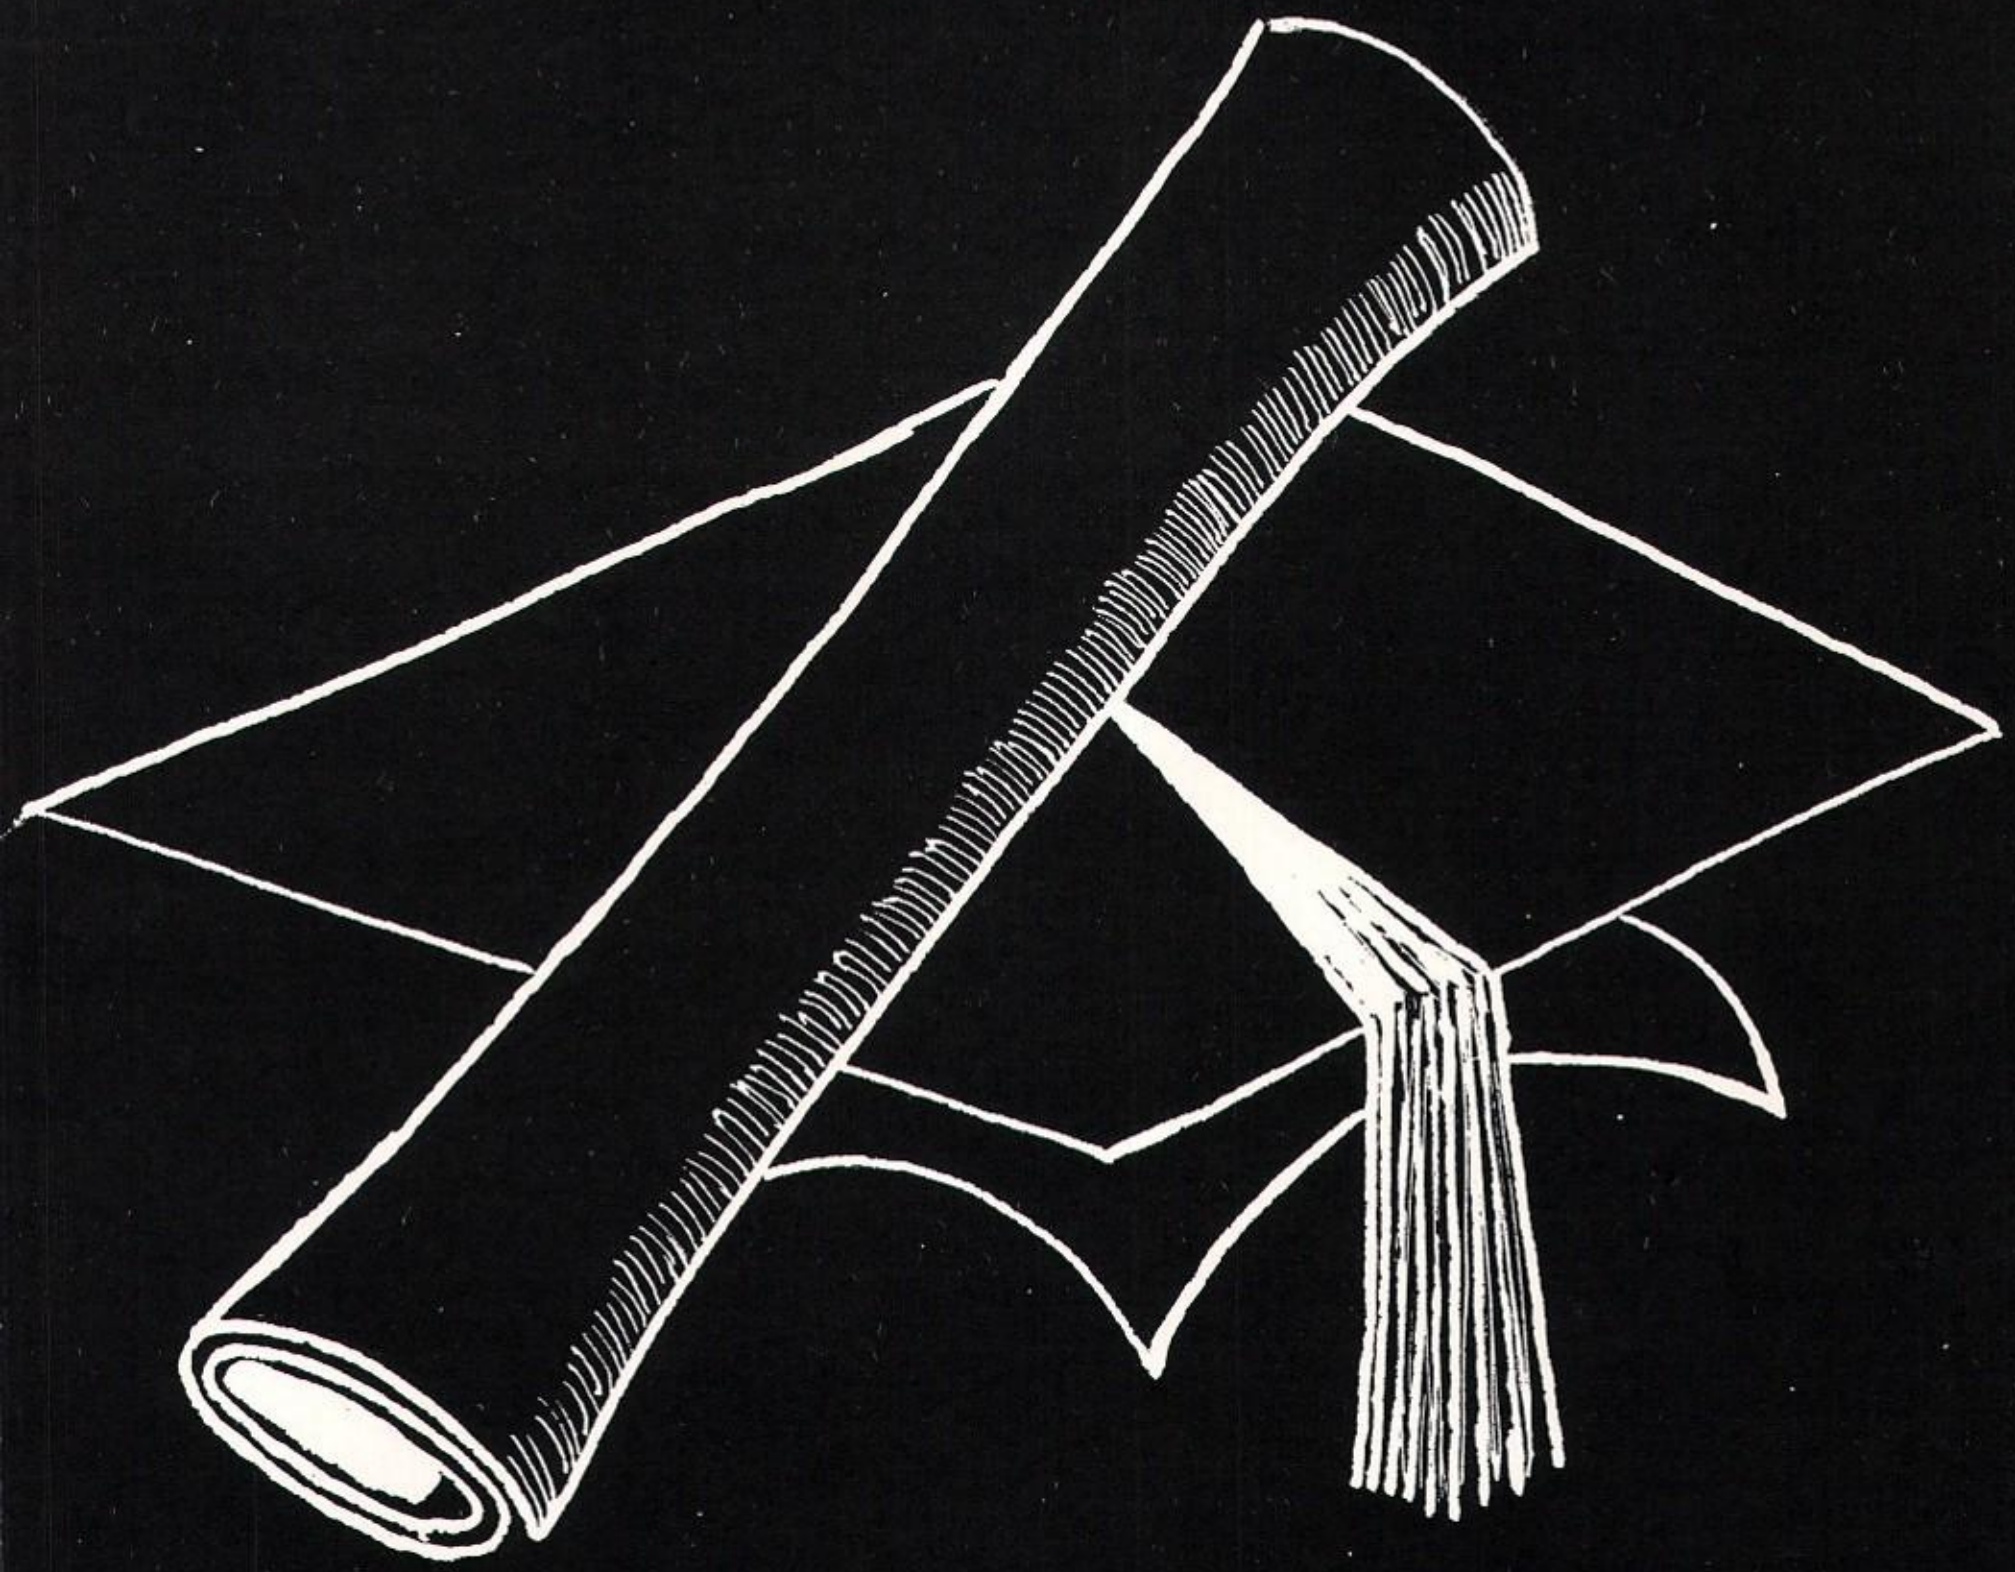
SENIORS



The Class of 1957

The senior class of 1957 elected Mike Christian, president; Bob Oehrtman, vice president; Sandra Jenkinson, secretary; Ted Nealeigh, treasurer; and Sally McVay, reporter.

In the senior magazine sale, the class broke all sales records. The magazine sales provide money for publishing THE CHIEF. Mrs. Kathryn Griner acted as head sponsor for the class of 1957.

As juniors, the class chose Larry Franklin as its president. Miss Catharine Boyer acted as class sponsor for the junior class. "Riddle Me Riches," a three-act comedy, was the junior play. Miss Patricia DeHayes directed the two-night sellout. The juniors planned "Fantasyland," the junior-senior prom. As juniors, the class ordered and received their class rings.

"Aloha" was the title of the sophomore class dinner-dance. Class president was Joe Hufnagle and Miss Ethel Hathaway was head sponsor.

In September of 1953, the class of 1957 began its high school career. As freshmen, the class party was named "Buttons and Bows" and Mrs. Leah Huston served as head class sponsor. Joe Hufnagle acted as freshman class president.

After your years, the class of 1957 leaves Greenville High School with many memories. These years will be remembered for the education we received and for the friendships we have made.

Senior Scholarship Team

The senior scholarship team is composed of the students who took the General State Scholarship Test. One hundred and twenty students took the test in Darke County and they had to be in the upper one-third of their graduating class. Those who placed were: first, Julia McGreevey; second, Ann Goubeaux; third, Jack O'Brien; seventh, Nancy Beisner; and tenth, Dave Lambertson. Those receiving state honorable mention were: Jon Von Wihl, Sandra Jenkinson, Sally McVay, Donna Jefferis, Dianne Sears, Rowland Randall, Sam Hildebrand and Linda Mikesell. Many of the other G. H. S. seniors ranked high in the over-all state percentage.

Salutatorian
Julia McGreevey

Julia is class salutatorian. She has achieved this honor by being second scholastically in the class of 1957.

Valedictorian
Ann Goubeaux

Ann, who has led the class of 1957 scholastically during her four years of high school, has won the distinction of class valedictorian.

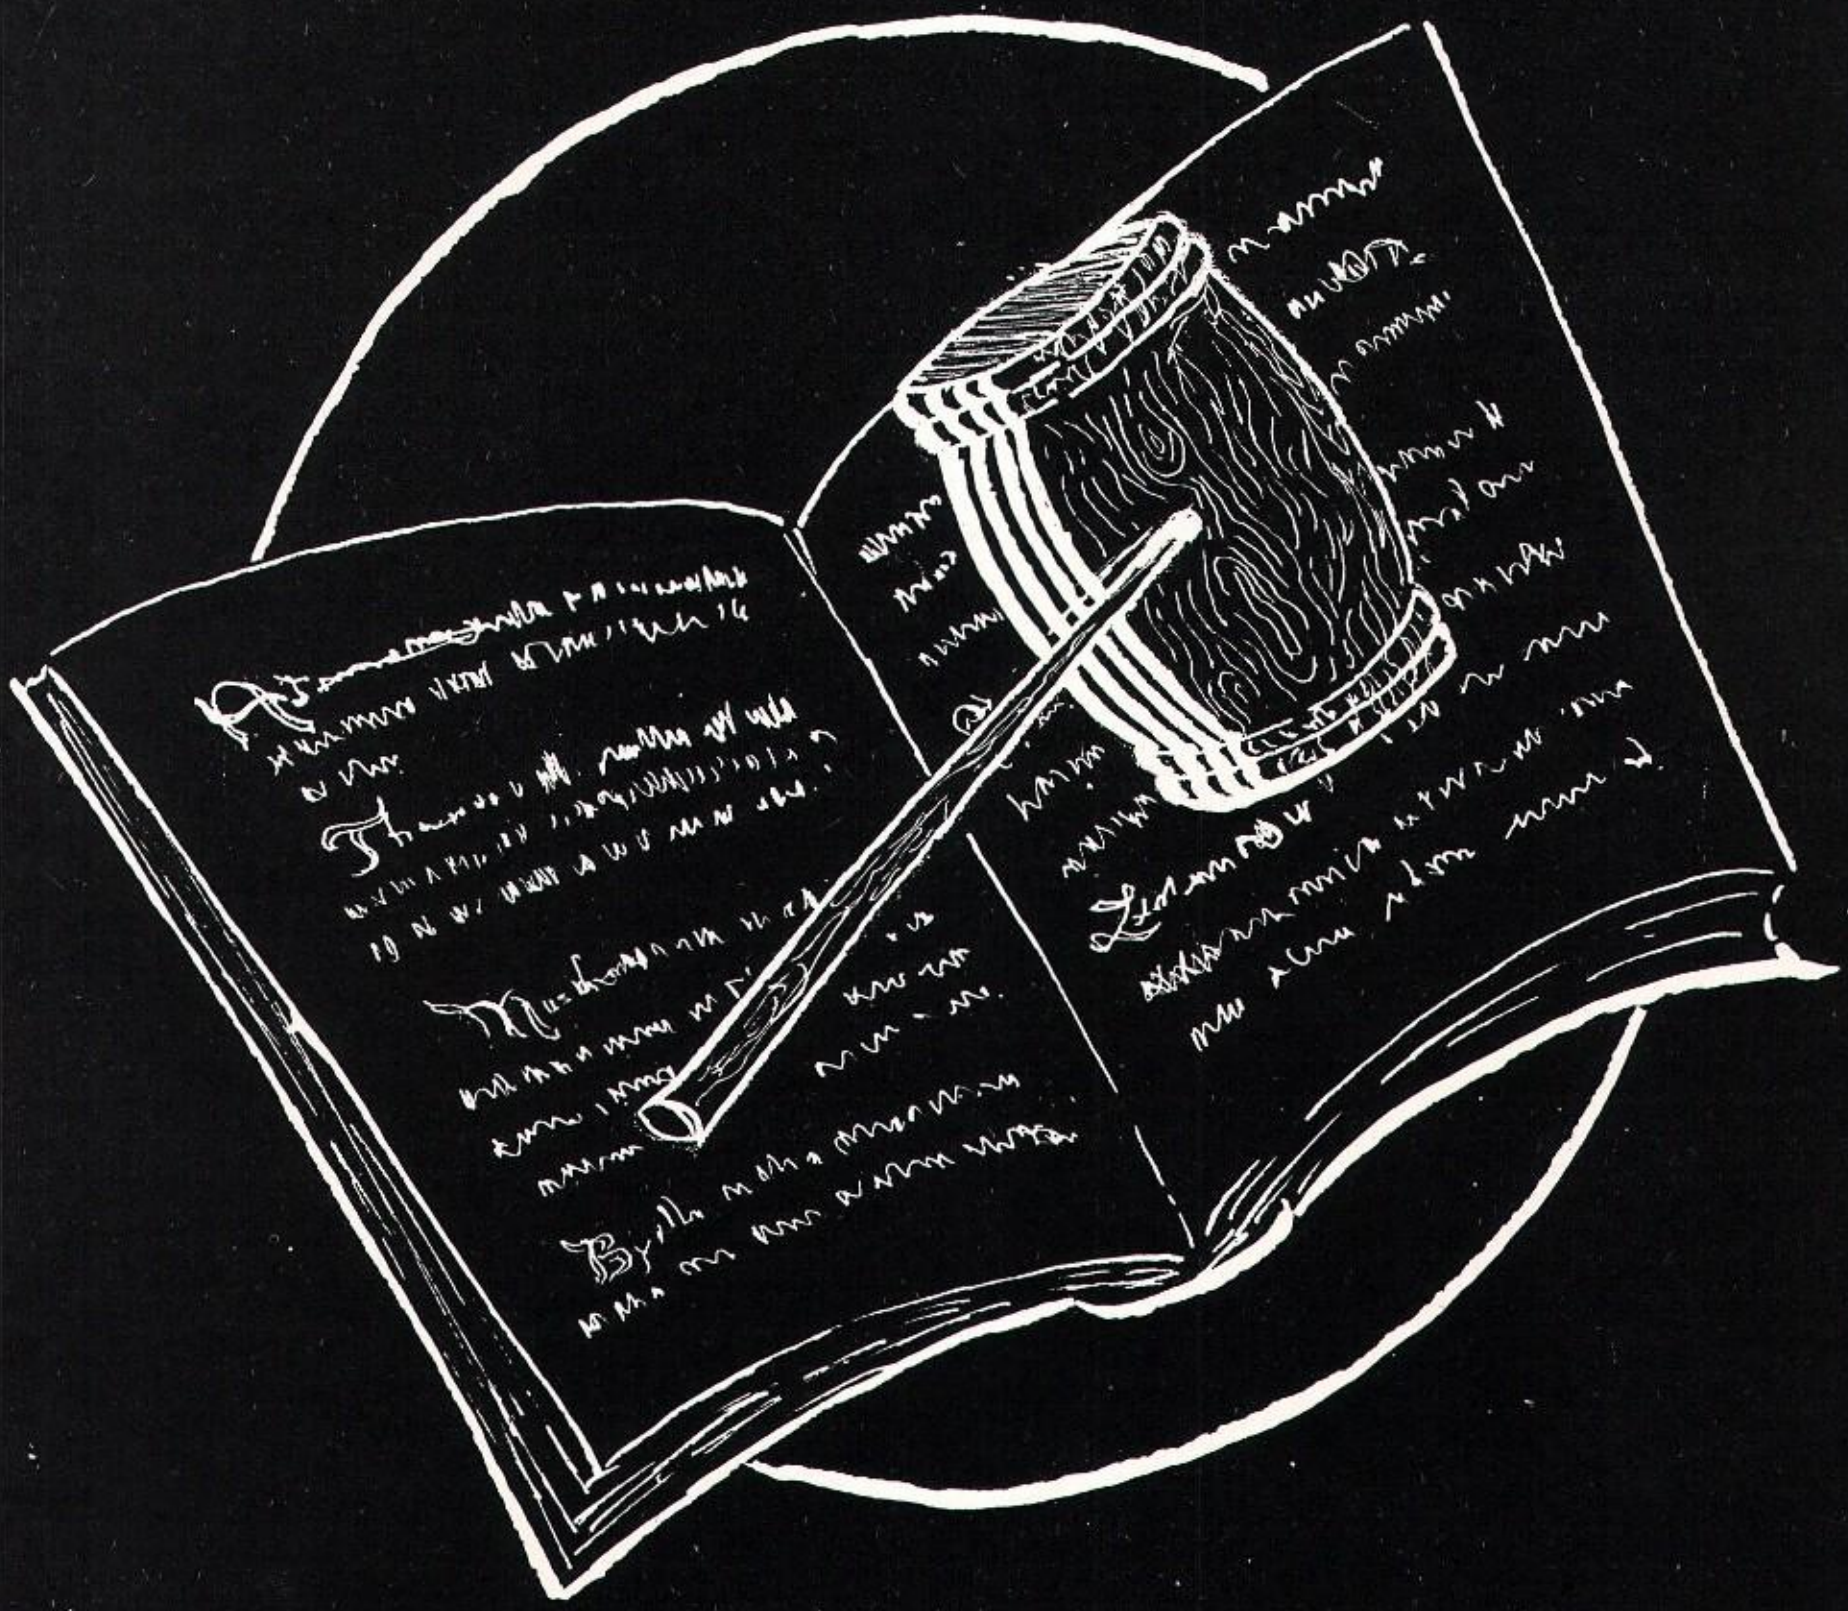
ACTIVITIES



Annual Staff

Editor-in-Chief

The Annual Staff has the task of writing and editing the school yearbook, The Chief. It is composed of 14 seniors who are nominated by the faculty and elected by the members of the senior class.

At the first meeting of the staff a junior representative, Mary Goubeaux, was elected. The student advisor is Sally McVay, as she served as junior representative last year.

Mrs. Kathryn Griner is advisor and Miss Anita Williams serves as financial advisor.

National Honor Society

Fifteen per cent of the senior class and five per cent of the junior class are eligible to be elected to the National Honor Society each year. They are selected for their scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Only those students who rank in the upper one-fourth of their class are eligible.

Last year six girls and one boy were tapped as juniors. They are: Donna Jefferis, Sally McVay, Hilda Brumbaugh, Ann Goubeaux, Nancy Younker, Julia McGreevey, and Mike Christian. These students participated in the initiation of new members this year.

Each spring elimination tests are given to select three students in each subject to participate in the state tests given at Miami University. This year the students pictured above went to Oxford on May 4, to take the state tests. The students that placed in the division, district, or state are pictured below.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is the national honorary organization for high school journalists. New members are selected on the basis of their scholastic achievement, extracurricular activities, and writing ability.

Dianne Sears is the only member who was admitted in her junior year. New members this year are: Sally McVay, Sandra Jenkinson, Nancy Beisner, Ann Goubeaux, Mary Goubeaux, and Dana Vannoy.

The Reporters' Club edits Greenville High School's weekly paper, the G.H.S. ADVOCATE, and publishes the MIRROR six times a year. The paper received a First Place rating this year from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, of which it is a member.

Other activities included attending a journalism clinic and having the annual banquet.

Reporters' Club

G.H.S. Advocate Staff

The G.H.S. Advocate Staff is elected every six weeks by the members of the Reporters' Club.

At the end of the first semester John E. Oliver and Principal Garland Kemper select the permanent editor for the next semester from the three editors who have served. The chosen editor then names his staff from those who have served during the first semester.

Six Weeks Staffs

Ushers

The thirteen girls who rank highest scholastically in their class at the end of their junior year are selected to be ushers.

They usher for all assemblies and at all programs presented by the school or community in the St. Clair Memorial Hall.

Because of their high scholastic standing, Hilda Brumbaugh and Linda Mikesell served as substitute ushers.

Stage Crew

Five boys compose the stage crew, which is an integral part of every production staged in the Memorial Hall.

They handle the stage settings, properties, lighting and sound effects, curtains, and keep the stage and back-stage in order. Their advisor is C. R. Hawes.

Orchestra

The high school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Dwight Brown, offers many opportunities to the students of Greenville High School to express themselves through various types of music. The orchestra, composed of 42 members, took part in both musicals and provided musical interludes preceding the class plays.

Concert Band

The concert band, under the direction of Russell Aukerman, consists of 68 students in grades nine through twelve.

The highlights of the year included the presentation of an assembly before the student body, the Winter Musical, and playing at commencement exercises.

Greenville High School's 65-piece marching band under the direction of Russell Aukerman performed at all football games in which the Green Wave participated, and also at the northern Miami Valley League preview game. In addition the band marched in several parades and presented an assembly to the student body.

Drum Major

A new feature of the marching band this year is the addition of a drum major, Bob Oehrtman, pictured at right.

He led the band and majorettes in all their presentations, keeping them in step and lending color to their routines.

A Cappella Choir

Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Hill, the A Cappella Choir, composed of seventy male and female voices, participated in a number of activities this year.

The choir presented a pep assembly to the student body, sang in the Winter and Spring Musicals, and also sang in the Christmas assembly presented by the speech department. In addition, A Cappella presented a Christmas program at the Rotary and Kiwanis Service clubs, and sang as part of the Good Friday services at the Presbyterian Church.

Mike McFarland, junior, accompanied the A Cappella Choir in all its presentations. At the choir's assembly Mike played his original composition titled, "Modern Fantasia."

This is Mike's second year as accompanist.

Girls' Chorus

Two hundred fifty girls composed the Girls' Chorus which participated in the annual Winter Musical in December.

Boys' Chorus

The boys' chorus, made up of one hundred twenty voices, also appeared in the Winter Musical.

The Future Teachers of America is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The club provides opportunities for obtaining information needed by students interested in a teaching profession. Included in this program are discovering such aids as scholarships, opportunities, and requirements for teachers.

Highlights of the year's activities included a picnic, acting as aids for teachers at the annual Open House, and initiation of new officers.

Teens' Christian Club

The Teens' Christian Club is an organization composed of high school girls of all ages. It serves to establish a fellowship of girls who will endeavor to realize their task as Christians in their daily lives.

Nancy Younker, president, led the club in many activities this year, among them the annual Thanksgiving assembly, a basketball pep assembly, and Christmas caroling. In addition T.C.C. sponsored a spring semi-formal dance and Easter services.

The Mothers' Club of T.C.C. was also very active this year, giving a party and buffet luncheon for their daughters in March, at which T.C.C. members presented their annual style show.

Installation of new officers in May climaxed the year's activities. Miss Helen Deeter serves as advisor for the group.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association is open to any girl in G. H. S. Each year every member is required to earn 200 points to retain her membership. Points may be earned by participating in various athletic activities, and also by performing club services.

When a girl has earned 800 points, she receives numerals; 1600, a "G"; and 2000, a trophy.

This year the Girls' Athletic Association operated the concession stand at all football games, sponsored volleyball, basketball, and bowling teams, the G.A.A. dance, the G.A.A. assembly, and the Homecoming Queen contest. The annual banquet in May climaxed the year's activities.

Polio Queen

This year's Polio Queen was Jane Hufford. Her attendants were Sue Hupe and Maritza Morrison.

For the past two years during the polio drive the Hi-Y, "G" Association, and the Future Farmers of America each sponsor a junior girl as a candidate for Polio Queen.

The Queen is chosen by the student body who vote by dropping money into specified containers. The girl that receives the largest amount of money is named queen and crowned at a basketball game.

Homecoming

Miss Ann Goubeaux was elected the Homecoming Queen of 1956-57 by a vote of the student body.

She was crowned in ceremonies preceding the Fairborn football game. The candidates for queen circled the football field in convertibles and then stopped in front of the home section of the stadium.

The queen's identity was revealed when Gary Stebbins, Student Council president, presented Ann with a bouquet of roses. The queen and her court were then escorted to the center of the football field. There the new queen was crowned by Miss Joyce Puterbaugh, a member of last year's court.

Acknowledgements

It is impossible to thank sufficiently those who have helped in the publication of the 1957 CHIEF, but we wish to express our deepest appreciation and gratitude to the following people:

Thank you, Mrs. Griner, for your patience and advice; for without it our deadlines would never have been met, and this publication could not have been possible.

Thank you, Mr. Phelps and Miss Williams, for your help in the management of the annual staff business.

Thank you, Seniors of 1957, for your enthusiasm and excellent salesmanship in breaking the record of sales in the annual magazine sales campaign.

Thank you, faculty and administration, for your co-operation.

Thank you Mr. Matt McCormick, representative of the Taylor Publishing Company, for your professional advice and aid.

Thank you, Taylor Publishing Company, for the care and skill used in the publication of this annual.
